Top Ten Reasons to Choose CHB

10 Inpatient: private rooms for all inpatients, with computerized clinical documentation and bedside bar code medication scanning for safe, effective care utilizing an all RN nursing staff.

9 Swingbed: our post acute skilled care service is an invaluable resource toward achieving recovery goals when additional therapeutic services are needed.

8 Obstetrics: our staff supports your choices in your birthing plan and delivers individualized care throughout your stay. We strive to offer you and your family a comforting birth environment that is home-like, private and secure.

7 Physical and Occupational Therapy: our highly qualified/certified therapy staff guides you and your family through the rehabilitation process of regaining mobility, activities of daily living and greater overall independence.

6 Emergency Department: 24/7 coverage, average wait times less than 20 minutes to see an Emergency Department physician with patient satisfaction rates exceeding national benchmarks.

5 Medical Specialists: Board certified physicians in eleven specialties to meet your care needs are located within the hospital.

4 Laboratory/Imaging Services: our lab is certified by the College of American Pathologists. Digital mammography, 64 slice CT scanner, MRI services, with a PACs system providing the electronic platform interfacing with other medical automation systems for radiology images.

3 Surgery Department: known for positive outcomes and individualized care. We are proud of our ZERO surgical-site infection rates.

2 Joint Commission Accreditation: recognized as the Gold standard for quality care, the Joint Commission's hospital standards address important functions relating to the care of patients and the management of hospitals.

The #1 reason to choose CHB: Personalized Care/State of the Art Facility: our staff treats your family like their own family. Built in 2006, patients have commented that it feels more like a home than a hospital. Whatever your healthcare needs, Community Hospital of Bremen wants you to know that you have a choice. When discussing your healthcare needs with your physician, you can specify that you want to receive your care at the Community Hospital of Bremen. We value and appreciate the opportunity to serve you.
